We are much alike
you and I . . .

Afraid, I think,
of what we are inside
and of letting it out
for someone else to see.

The thing that we must learn,
both you and I . . .
Is that someone waits
outside that door
that we keep closed,
someone who wants
only to understand.

All we have to do
is open
that door
which we keep closed . . .
for friendship,
it is said,
is merely
gentle understanding.

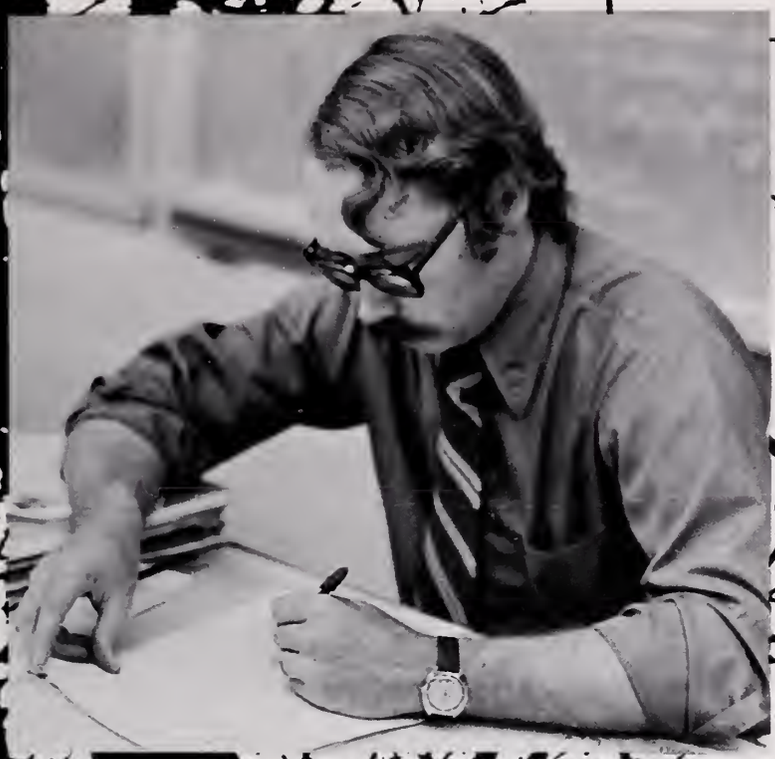
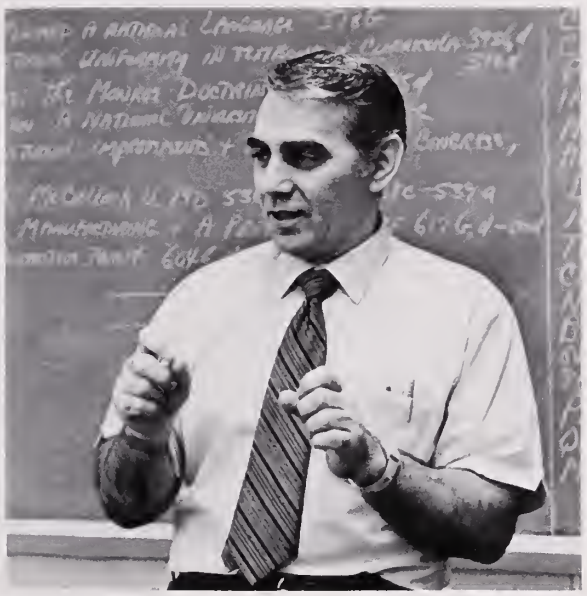
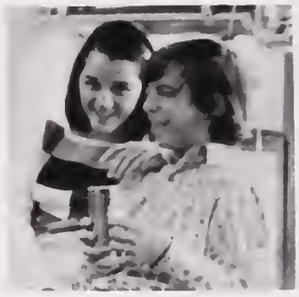
Dimensions



A place devoid of life . . .

One appears, to provide the void with meaning.





Another joins in,
and there are two
closely bound.

Gradually, the two expand into three,
all sharing.

Another Comes to Make it Four

Four Together Losing Their Self-awareness

Five intertwine, and a group emerges . . .

composed of the once individual cells

And then, it seems, people abound where persons stood . . .

one voice,

one body

teeming with

Our F&M bankers went to school, too.

So besides our regular checking, savings, loans and such, we're well attuned to special student needs. Like parent/student joint checking or savings, education loans and the like.

At F&M we have a special interest in students. Because a lot of them turn out to be our best customers.

And some turn out to be our best bankers, too. First & Merchants National Bank. Member FDIC.

With the assistance of our sponsor, Miss Mary Rice, the staff of eleven veteran members and thirteen new members worked from spring 1972 to spring 1973 to produce the 1973 Trucker. Beginning with the initial tasks of collecting ads, selecting a theme, and designing a cover, the staff assumed the responsibilities of meeting four deadlines, and later distributed the books. Performing these duties, the staff toiled many long afternoons, weekends, holidays, and snow days.

The theme of the 1973 Trucker, friends, tries to create an awareness of our need for each other. The color of the cover conveys the warmth of friendship, and the tree design denotes the outreach. Dimensions is an attempt at a type of "photo-essay" depicting life at Churchland. Sectional pages have been reapportioned so that there can be a more graphic presentation of student life.

We would like to thank the following: Delmar Studios for club and class pictures; Mr. Irvin Goodwin for club and student life pictures; Mr. Robert Wentz for sports snaps; Smith and Welton's for senior pictures; Mr. John Perry of Hunter Publishing Company; and all our numerous advertisers.
